Bryan Sullivan, Supervisor
Catholic Charities Diocese of Charlotte Mental Health Counseling Program

Keynote Presented by Emily Hogan, LCSW-A

Emily Hogan is a licensed clinical social work associate currently serving as a therapist at Saint Mark Catholic Church. Before earning her master's degree in social work from the University of North Carolina Charlotte, she completed a master's degree in Higher Education in Student Affairs at Miami University. She worked in residence life at Davidson College, providing crisis response and student support. Emily also served as a middle school youth minister for three years. Over the past decade, Emily has taught Mental Health First Aid, increasing awareness of mental health concerns and combating stigma. Through her work in youth ministry, higher education, and mental health counseling, Emily has worked closely with children, adolescents, parents, and families navigating various mental health concerns.
