Additional Information	Saint Michael is seeking a Lower School teacher (Kindergarten) for the upcoming 2022-23 school year. The Kindergarten teacher will provide classroom instruction to students across a variety of subjects with a strong emphasis on math and early reading skills, and guides students through the routines, procedures, classes, and tasks of the school day. The position requires a mature educator with good Christian morals who loves teaching and shepherding children. He or she should be a person who is personable, organized, and committed to providing a caring and engaging learning environment in which students' minds, hearts, and souls are cultivated and nurtured.
