The Spirituality of the Catechist and the Call to Holiness

The catechist is a missionary with a burning desire that all people 'would come to know the surpassing knowledge of Jesus Christ' and 'call upon Him as Lord.'

The Church exists to Evangelize. The catechist studies and meditates upon Her documents and Sacred Scripture. He preaches Her word. He prays Her prayers. The catechist sees himself as an extension of the Church. He is a person living deeply in the heart of the Church and he loves the Church in imitation of Christ, who loved the Church and 'sacrificed Himself for her.'

Authored by Sr. Mary Michael Fox in Issue #29.4 of The Sower
