The Roman Catholic Parish
of Saint Pius the Tenth Greensboro, North Carolina welcomes all to join us in our endeavor to:

KNOW THE LORD through our ministries
of Evangelization, Education and Formation, and our meditation and study of the Sacred Scriptures.

LOVE THE LORD through our worship and prayer centered on Jesus Christ's presence in the Holy Eucharist.

SERVE THE LORD through our stewardship of the gifts entrusted to us, continuing Christ's work of charity and compassion.

Dear friends in Christ,

It is my privilege and pleasure as Pastor to invite you to join the mission of Saint Pius the Tenth. Our mission is rooted in the universal call to holiness and strives to develop a deep and abiding friendship with our Lord, Jesus Christ, and our brothers and sisters in the Church.

I like that our mission is straight forward and that it builds upon itself – to Know, to Love, and to Serve the Lord. Our service flows from our love, and our love flows from our knowledge. I have found that we may work for someone because we are compensated; however, the best service and greatest sacrifices come only with the loyalty of love. But how can we love that which we don't know? True love is not blind, it is relational. Likewise, our commitment to Christ must be more than an emotional response. It must be based on knowledge of the truth of who He is. This knowledge comes through revelation and contemplation, prayer and study, time and experience.

Our mission to Know, to Love, and to Serve not only builds upon itself, but builds community as it helps us all to grow to full stature in Christ. It is my hope that your commitment to our ministries at Saint Pius the Tenth will deepen your knowledge and confirm your belief in the love God has for us all, and you will make a disciple's response of love overflowing into service. I am convinced that God is calling each of us to be stewards of this mission, and I am excited to see how the mission will be manifested in and through our lives in the year ahead.

Be assured of my gratitude and prayers for I am

Fraternally yours in Christ,

Reverend Monsignor Anthony Marcaccio, V.F.

DISCIPLESHIP

The word Discipleship is defined as “the act of accepting and teaching the doctrines of another.” Being a disciple of Christ is an intentional decision to “drop one’s nets,” just as Peter did when he decided to follow Jesus. We cannot be disciples in our sleep and we cannot be disciples without purpose. We must be open to trusting in the Lord. We must have a desire to learn more and be active in our learning. We must be open to the possibility of change. And we must be motivated from within by the Holy Spirit. In order to be good disciples, we must strive to become more Christ-like with the Holy Spirit in our hearts by examining our thoughts, words, and actions in light of the Word of God.

STEWARDSHIP

What are the characteristics of Stewardship? Safeguarding material and human resources and using them responsibly is one answer. Another answer is the generous giving of time, talent, and treasure. But being a Christian steward means so much more. As Christian stewards, we receive God’s gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord. As we endeavor in our stewardship activities, we should always keep Jesus in our hearts, words and deeds.

STEWARDSHIP AS FAITHFUL DISCIPLESHIP

How are Discipleship and Stewardship related?

When we are baptized in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, we make a promise to God that we believe in Him and accept the teachings of His Son, Jesus Christ. With this promise of discipleship, we are called to be holy and participate in the life of the Church as a member of the Body of Christ. Through the recognition and sharing of our gifts – through the lens of stewardship – we experience God’s presence in our lives. We are called to be intentionally Catholic, by establishing a personal relationship with Christ, participating in the sacramental life of the Church, and helping to lead others to the Faith through evangelization and the sharing of the Gospel – the “Good News” – of Jesus Christ.

Through the ministry of the priest, it is Jesus who touches the sick to heal them from sin – and sometimes even from physical ailment. The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive this Sacrament. A careful judgment about the serious nature of the illness or situation is sufficient. Contact: Liz Pendergrass, (336)272.4681, lpendergrass@stpiusxnc.com

ALMIGHTY FATHER,

Loving and Gracious God,
We ask you to strengthen us
to answer your call to be disciples.

May our response be rooted in your Word, Jesus Christ.
May our response be ever mindful of the needs of our community.
And may our response flow from a profound sense of gratitude for your many blessings.
By the gift of the Holy Spirit,
empower and enthuse us,
that our response in faith
may bring hope,
and share the love
that comes to us
through Jesus Christ,
We ask this in His Name,
Who is Lord forever and ever.

AMEN.
